

Luxury and Austerity in Archaic Greece

Thursday (Heinrich Schliemann-Institut)

17–17:30: Reception

17:30 18:30: Jan Meister

'Luxury' and 'Democracy' in 19th and 20th century scholarship

19:15–20:45: Hans van Wees

The first Greek mercenaries in Egypt: myths and realities

Dinner – Hopfenkeller

Friday (Cast Gallery)

9–10:30: Discussion

Working papers by van Wees and Ober/Weingast

10:30–11: Coffee

11–12: Gunnar Seelentag

Austerity in Archaic and Classical Crete

12–13: Nadin Burkhardt

Luxury as a model. A case study from the Archaic elite in the Western Greek colonies

13–14:30: Lunch

14:30–15:30: Wolfgang Fischer-Bossert

Money and wealth. The early electrum coinage of Lydia and Ionia

15:30–16: Coffee

16–17: Erich Kistler

Oversizing the middle? The powerful fat-ones in Archaic Greece

17–18: Mirko Canevaro

Hybris and koros. The ideological foundations of anti-luxury policy in the Archaic period

Dinner – Otto's Schiffsrestaurant

31 May – 2 June 2018

Saturday (Cast Gallery)

9–10:30: Wolfgang Filser

Class-specific semantics in Athenian vase painting

10:30–11: Coffee

11–12: Moritz Hinsch

Philosophers, fishmongers and oligarchs. Luxury and austerity in 4th century Athens

12–13:30: Lunch

13:30–14:30: Alain Duplouy

The (ir)rationality of the Greek city and Wittgenstein's concept of Lebensform

14:30–15: Coffee

15–16: Corinna Riva

Southern Etruria from Orientalizing violence to the violence of Hellenisation: From encounter to codification

16–17: Roman Roth

Luxury, austerity and authority in the Early Roman Republic: The beginnings of the censorship

17–17:30: Final discussion

Dinner – Teepott (Warnemünde)

Venues: Universität Rostock, Heinrich Schliemann-Institut für Altertumswissenschaften
Schwaansche Straße 3, 18055 Rostock
Ulmenstraße 69, 18057 Rostock – House 5, Cast Gallery